

IF YOU ENCOUNTER A PROBLEM...

...THE UNIVERSITY
IS READY TO HELP YOU.

Ombudsman

You can ask Ombudsman for help in any case when you think that you have been treated unfairly, you are in conflict and need a mediator, or you simply do not know who to go to with your problem.

The Ombudsman is an academic representative for student- and staff-related matters. The Ombudsman offers assistance and support in various university issues.

IF YOU ENCOUNTER A PROBLEM...

Academic Legal Counselling

The Academic Legal Counselling Team provides free legal aid to students, including persons who have experienced unequal treatment, are victims of harassment, mobbing, or their rights have been violated in any other way.

Legal Clinic

Legal Clinic UW is a free of charge Student Legal Aid Centre. Legal advice is provided by a group of students at an advanced stage of their studies to anyone who needs it and is not able to pay for it. The students are supervised by professional lawyers.

Office for Persons with Disabilities

The Office provides support for persons with illness or disability.

Psychological Support Centre

If you are facing emotional or mental difficulties, the PCC offers free and confidential support, with the option to consult a psychologist or psychiatrist. Every student has the right to professional help – English consultations are available on Wednesdays from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM.
