OF WARSAW

LANGUAGES AT UW

You can learn more than 40
different languages at UW.

The Centre of Polish Language and Culture for Foreigners 'Polonicum' offers:

- Polish language classes at all levels of proficiency, from A1 (beginner) to C2 (advanced);
- Lectures, seminars, workshops, films, audio-visual presentations introducing Polish history, culture, and traditions (in both Polish and English);
- Ethnographic workshops (organised in co-operation with the Ethnographic Museum of Warsaw) related to specific customs (St. Andrew's Day, Christmas, and Easter);
- State certificate examinations in Polish as a foreign language.

International students of the University of Warsaw are entitled to a set number of the Polish language and culture class hours free of charge. The number varies for exchange and degree students, as well as for 1st cycle, 2nd cycle, and PhD students. For details, please contact your faculty or check your programme requirements.

LEARNING FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Students of the University of Warsaw can learn more than 40 different languages. The University System of Language Provision was distinguished by the European Union with the European Language Label award – a European recognition of innovative approaches in language teaching and learning. The language offer of the University of Warsaw is open not only to students, but also to non-students, including foreigners.

Students of the 1st cycle and long-cycle (5-year) studies at the University of Warsaw are eligible for 240 teaching hours for free.

Students of the University of Warsaw and prospective participants from outside UW can also take part in any number of paid courses, be they face-to-face, hybrid, or online.
