

IF YOU ENOUNTER A PROBLEM...

...THE UNIVERSITY
IS READY TO HELP YOU.

Ombudsman

The Ombudsman is an academic representative for student- and staff-related matters. The Ombudsman offers assistance and support in various university issues.

You can ask for help in any case: if you think you have been treated unfairly, you are in conflict and need a mediator, or you simply do not know who to go to with your problem.

Equal Opportunity Chief Specialist at UW

The person who performs this function is committed to the anti-discrimination policy, equal treatment, and diversity at the University of Warsaw. Anyone who has experienced discrimination or unequal treatment may report the incident directly to the Chief Specialist or to the Rector's Committee for Preventing Discrimination.

IF YOU ENOUNTER A PROBLEM...

Academic Legal Counselling

The Academic Legal Counselling Team provides free legal aid to students, including persons who have experienced unequal treatment, are victims of harassment, mobbing, or their rights have been violated in any other way.

Legal Clinic

Legal Clinic UW is a free of charge Student Legal Aid Centre. Legal advice is provided by a group of students at an advanced stage of their studies to anyone who needs it and is not able to pay for it. The students are supervised by professional lawyers.

Office for Persons with Disabilities

The Office provides support for persons with illness or disability.

Psychiatrist and Psychologist

If you are dealing with psychological problems, you can always contact a specialist. Every student has the right to receive assistance. The PCC will help you obtain an initial diagnosis, which can be the basis for a referral to a psychiatrist or psychologist. English language consultations are held on Wednesdays, 10.00 am to 2.00 pm
